Correspondence

Fiscal Officer Welter reported receiving a Christmas card from Bob Latta, and M&B Asphalt. The Township also received a letter from Seneca County Water Rescue Team for Storing their boat at Station 1. Fiscal Officer Welter also reported receiving and email and regular mail from AEP about the West Rockaway North Central Cooperative rebuild project.

Dennis Wilkinson reported that he filed their campaign finance report for the levy. He said for only spending $2,138.02 the committed did a heck of job. They managed to get the levies passed. Mr. Wilkinson asked if we had anything in the zoning code about data Centers. He said when he and Chief Hafley were at Eden townships meeting their zoing inspector brought up about firms looking for land to put data centers in. He said the people calling about property and not telling them what they want to do with it. He said it has been driving up Electric costs. Trustee Distel said he would say something to the commissions and zoning inspector Hohman.

Chief Hafley reported that they are at 487 runs for the year. Up 72 runs. Chief Hafley reported that the original document for Eden Towship was incorrect. He had a new agreement for the Trustees to sign. Chief Hafley reported that they had split up the payment into two payments. Chief Hafley reported that Trustee Distel sent him an email about a Volunteer Fire Department Grant for Small Counties. He they talked about using the old generator for Station 2. Trustee Distel said they were looking at possibly using that grant to by a new generator the would be compatalbe with the three phase electric at station 2 instead of up grading the electric to use the old generator. Chief Hafely reported that they did order new extraction gloves for the Moore Grant. He said their old gloves they would use and if you had to take the gloves off for any reason your hands were all sweaty and you could not get the back on. Trustee Distel asked if Chief Hafley kept track of all the grants they have gotten so we can show the public that we are trying to save the public money.

Joe Worland passed out the renewal for Insurance for OTARMA. He went over the limits and deductibles. The total cost is $34,014.00 for the year which will be due in January. Trustee Distel asked about Aaron Welds and Cyber Security training that will be reqired next year. It was mentioned that there might be some training at the Ohio Township Conference in Febuary.
